Account Name: Student Rep Fee

Account Number: 72

Motion: That the ARC Model United Nations team is requesting six thousand dollars ($6,000) to attend the 70th annual Model United Nations of the Far West conference in April to represent American River College at this national conference in San Francisco.

Additional Information:

The ARC Model United Nations organization has been nationally recognized for its excellence in diplomacy and delegate participation. Each year, students prepare for the Model United Nations competition by preparing resolutions, policy statements, and speeches to be presented at the conference itself. Model United Nations is the sole representative of ARC at this conference and is one of the few community colleges to be recognized with prestigious awards in recognition of demonstrated excellence in diplomacy.

Students actively fundraise throughout the year via Clubs Day participation, garnered incentive points, and external fundraisers/sponsors. Typically, any uncovered costs are the burden of the student delegation. The students of ARC's Model United Nations urges that this motion is looked upon favorably. six thousand dollars ($6,000) would be allocated to cover all costs associated with residency.

If the money is given to the organization, they plan to allocate the six thousand dollars ($6,000) to cover a five (5) day, four (4) night stay at the Hyatt Hotel in San Francisco which is the location of the conference. fifteen (15) student delegates and one faculty, two (2) students per room for a total of nine (9) rooms at one hundred sixty three dollars and sixty five cents (163.65) per night for a total of five thousand eight hundred ninety one dollars and forty cents ($5,891.40).

The funding is for five-day access to the conference. At the conference, the organization will have delegates present at each simulation of United Nations General Assembly and respective committees. The conference will be held in San Francisco, California from April 17th-21th.
