4. New business:
 - a. The student government newspaper
 - i. It has been decided to not produce the ASB newspaper (nor newsletter, though these two terms were used interchangeably) because of the new campus's newspaper - Dam Good News, which increased competition.
 - ii. It has been decided to not ask for ASB's part in Dam Good News because it would destroy the whole idea of our own newsletter.
 - iii. It has been decided to instead develop a blog on ASB's website, where we could produce pretty much anything - articles, interviews, snippets of current news, etc.

Reed Waters moved to extend the meeting by 15 minutes. It has been moved and seconded.

 - iv. Reed Waters can serve as a temporary editor for anything that needs to be posted on our website.
 - v. It has been decided that purchasing Grammarly.com subscription would be necessary unless there will be someone with superb grammar skills.
 - vi. It has been decided to inquire about whether it's possible to create a Twitter-like sidebar on the ASB website to post current news and comments.
 - b. Logistics
 - i. No need to discuss logistics if there will be no newsletter, so it has been moved to skip this section.
5. Public comment - no comment was made
6. The meeting has been adjourned at 5:20
